DIET A QUALIFICATION.

I ERE IS A REAL hard luck story A few weeks ago Lee A. Wright of Mobile, Ala., engaged in a civil service examination for a clerkship in the postoffice there. He outstripped all of his competitors and seemed certain of landing the place. In fact he was waiting for his appointment to arrive from Washington, when instead came a letter stating that he could not have the place and for a reason which will strike most of us as peculiar.
